

A, at Duluth, Minn., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about December 31, 1918, by the Salubrin Laboratory, Grand Crossing, Ill., and transported from the State of Illinois into the State of Minnesota, and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended.

Analysis of a sample of the article by the Bureau of Chemistry of this department showed that it consisted essentially of alcohol, ethyl acetate, and water, with a trace of aldehyde.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in substance in the libel in that certain statements appearing in the circular accompanying, on the carton enclosing, and on the label on the bottle containing the article, regarding its curative or therapeutic effects, falsely and fraudulently represented the article to be effective as a remedy for ringworm, eczema, pimples, and other irritated conditions of the skin, dandruff and falling hair, to break a fever or to cure a cold, pneumonia, rheumatic aches and pains, vaginal discharge, hemorrhoids, rectal ulcers, and constipation, in all diseases of the nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, lockjaw, cholera, consumption, typhoid fever, blood poisoning, boils and pimples, catarrhs, asthma, erysipelas, overstrained and inflamed eyes, glands swollen, barber's itch, headache, herpes, itch, scabies, poison ivy, poison oak, prickly heat, shingles, milkblotch, acne, psoriasis, rash, salt rheum, tetter, stomach troubles, diarrhea, thrush, varicose veins, painful menstruation, falling of the womb, and neuralgia pains in vagina or womb, whereas, in truth and in fact, it was not effective.

On July 15, 1919, the Salubrin Laboratory, claimant, having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be delivered to the claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the filing of a bond in the sum of $75, in conformity with section 10 of the act.

On June 18, 1919, the United States attorney for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 5½ dozen packages of Gin-berry Capsules, at Williamsport, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about April 24, 1919, by the Henry S. Wampole Co., Baltimore, Md., and transported from the State of Maryland into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended.

Analysis of a sample of the article by the Bureau of Chemistry of this department showed that it consisted of a mass composed essentially of cubebs, balsam of copaiba, santal oil, magnesia, and alum.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libel in that certain statements in the circular accompanying, and on the cartons enclosing the article, regarding the curative or therapeutic effects of the article, falsely and fraudulently represented the article to be effective as a remedy for clap, gonorrhea, gleet, or any discharge from the urinary organs, whereas it was not effective.

On December 1, 1919, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and the court ordered that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
